

Southwest Wildlife Foundation Presents

Wild Birds of Prey

By Martin Tyner, falconer, wildlife rehabilitator, and environmental educator, along with his spectacular birds of prey

Scout, the Golden Eagle
with his friend Martin Tyner

Date: Thursday, December 10, 2009
Locations: Desert View Elementary 1:30-2:30
Page Middle School 3:00-4:00

This program hopes to inspire students to
Explore, Learn, and Protect what is in their own backyard

Thanks to the Sponsors in Partnership:

Glen Canyon National Recreation Area, Grand Staircase Escalante National Monument, John Wesley Powell Museum, Glen Canyon Natural History Assoc, Page Library, and the Page Unified School District.

Contact Information: Glen Canyon National Recreation Area 928-608-6353

Southwest Wildlife Foundation Presents

Wild Birds of Prey

By Martin Tyner, falconer, wildlife rehabilitator, and environmental educator, along with his spectacular birds of prey

Scout, the Golden Eagle
with his friend Martin Tyner

Date: Thursday, December 10, 2009
Locations: Desert View Elementary 1:30-2:30
Page Middle School 3:00-4:00

This program hopes to inspire students to
Explore, Learn, and Protect what is in their own backyard

Thanks to the Sponsors in Partnership:

Glen Canyon National Recreation Area, Grand Staircase Escalante National Monument, John Wesley Powell Museum, Glen Canyon Natural History Assoc, Page Library, and the Page Unified School District.

Contact Information: Glen Canyon National Recreation Area 928-608-6353

